ANNUAL MEETING AND ELECTION RESULTS

The Cedarwood Association's annual meeting was held on April 11, 2000 and conducted by President Janet Smith-Flaherty.

Please note: due to space limitations in this issue, we were unable to include the meeting minutes in their entirety. If you would like a copy of the minutes, please contact the Association Secretary.

Highlights of Meeting:

- Ed Adelman (Associate Vice President for Operations, Brandeis University) reported that the work at the Rose Art Museum should be complete by July of this year and will open in September. The City of Waltham is working with Brandeis to make the Cedarwood Playground more accessible by re-grading the existing sloping entrance.
- Beginning this year the scholarship award will be increased to $1,500.00 and will be presented as a single award.
- The traffic proposal for the Mass Broken Stone was presented as: traffic will be directed around to the Waltham side of the Rt. 20 rotary and then routed to make a right turn into the Mass Broken Stone site. For more information and a copy of the proposal contact Janet Smith-Flaherty.
- Waltham City Councilor Joe Giordano reported that the Regis Sewer project work on Weston St. is completed. Due to the many problems with residential gas lines, the Gas Company will need to replace those lines, requiring additional construction work in the future.

Election Results:

President - Janet Smith- Flaherty
Vice President - Hans Brings
Treasurer - Elise Ghitelman
Secretary - Alexis Shaw

Annual Picnic

New Neighbor Open House

On March 10 the Cedarwood Neighborhood Association sponsored an open house and despite a snowstorm the night before, many new neighbors ventured out and were warmly welcomed by hosts Tom and Janet Flaherty.

In addition to a fun time, good food and lots of great conversation, information packages on Cedarwood and the City of Waltham were distributed to new residents.

Attending the Open House were new neighbors: Jill & Brian Lenhardt, Jim Smith & Nancy Lawrence, Phil & Nancy Bakker, Cecilia & Charles Liu, Pat Picard, E. Lewanne Dudley, Chris & Cindy Taranto, Jackie Pishdochian, Eric & Kristine Scheufele and the newest new neighbor, two-month old Matthew Scheufele.

Special guests were City Councilor Joe Giordano and State Rep. Tom Stanley and his fiancée, Kimberly Bayliss.

Thanks to the all the existing neighbors who attended the party and brought all the delicious goodies! Present at the party were: Ellie and Kevin Lyman, Amy Eastwood, Alexis and Steve Shaw, Kristina and Max Chretien, and Sandy Kiesling.

John and Mary Collins Memorial Red Cross Food Pantry Established

The John and Mary Collins Memorial Food Pantry was recently opened here in Waltham under the auspices of the American Red Cross. Established by their family in tribute to the longtime Cedarwood residents years of community service.

Know a good plumber????

If you do we want to hear from you! We are in the process of creating a list of service people who have been employed by residents with good results. The list will include ANY service people you feel are appropriate, i.e.: plumbers, electricians, dentists, etc.

Please mail or drop off names to be included to Phyllis Leibman, 49 Virginia Road, or email: Pdleib@aol.com. We hope to print the list for future distribution.
