Lisa was awarded $200 to study at Salve Regina College in Rhode Island, where she will be majoring in Special Education. Kimberly was also awarded $200 toward her tuition at the University of Rhode Island, where she plans to major in Political Science.

Neighbors may support the awarding of the annual scholarship by individual contributions, included with membership payments, or by donating an item to the scholarship table at the Neighborhood Yard Sale in September.

SPRING DAY Despite cool temperatures, 30 hearty residents took part in the Spring Day celebration at the Cedarwood playground on April 30. Sixteen children were read the story "The Reason For a Flower" and then were given cups, soil and flower seeds to plant. The children also participated in the annual egg hunt. Thank-you to those who organized and took part in welcoming Spring to Cedarwood.
