YARD SALE SPECTACULAR SUCCESS! 😊

The 11th Annual Cedarwood Yard Sale, held under glowering skies on Saturday, Sept. 13, was a rousing success, both financially and in terms of neighborhood spirit. Some 45 families signed up to participate, paying a modest registration fee which goes directly into the neighborhood scholarship fund. (As in past years, an additional 10 or so households did not pay the registration fee but felt free to take advantage of our hard work in advertising and preparing for the event...late fees will still be accepted if you feel so inclined!) Net income from the sale of donated "white elephant" items and food goodies doubled over last year's event to a record $592.20, which also goes directly into our scholarship fund. Special thanks for hard work and diligence go to Susan and Mitch Finn, Ellie Lyman, Amy Eastwood, Susan Burstein, Karen Walz, Candy McGann, John Kerr, Chuck McCullough, Colleen Stankard, Nancy Kerner, Pat Barton, Alan Bugos, Cameron Kerr, Tyler Kerr, Lorne MacArthur, Mary Kerr and Rebecca McCullough. The cooking finesse and style of Councillor MacArthur, ably assisted by Councillor McCullough were especially valuable! Thanks to all who baked for the food table and to all who donated to the white elephant table. And thanks to all the shoppers who helped us recycle so much of our junk!

some of our local politicians, including our Ward 7 Councillor Rebecca McCullough and State Representative David Gately. This is for all new neighbors, whether or not you are members of the organization. Cedarwood prides itself on being a cohesive, proactive neighborhood -- come and meet some of the fascinating, diverse and friendly folk who live around you! And if anyone knows of a new neighbor, please encourage them to attend -- sometimes a personal word is needed to get people to participate!
